DIVIDEND, JAN'Y 1, 1868,
FORTY PER CENT UPON ALL POLICIES THAT have been in force five years and payable on the anniversaries of the renewals of said policies
This Company in declaring its Dividend does so upon THE PERCENTA E SYSTEM. Thus each insurer whether he is a rich man or a poor man, a prominent citizen or an humble citizen, shares alike
PREMIUM SYSTEM,
CASH, WHEN REQUIRED NOTES ARE HOWEVER TAKEN to accommodate the Insurer in paying his Premiums thus showing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually Cancel the Notes
How different this is from a Cash Company who exact all Cash, under the plea that it is unsafe to grant this indulgence to a policy holder when he is unable to pay his renewal premium
REMEMBER
That the OLD MANHATTAN never assures or promises Extravagant Dividends to induce insurers to come and insure with them Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well managed and first class Companies and they can offer the record of the past as an evidence of the future It never vilifies the character of other Companies to accumulate business THE MANHATTAN S oldest insurers are its best advocates The business of the Company is conducted with ECONOMY!
This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future.
From the following table taken from the New York Insurance Reports of 1867 it will be seen that our percentage of expenses to receipts are very much less than any Companies enumerated below

Expenses on each $100 of Receipts

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO APRIL 17.

The Impeachment Proceedings

WASHINGTON April 17 —In the Senate the Chief Justice announced that the first business in order was the order offered by Conness yesterday providing that the Court should meet at ten A M daily Adopted

On motion of Senator Ferry the Senate ordered the ... from the official report of the trial ... statements published in the Globe as a part of Butler's speech yesterday the same not having been read as evidence

Several newspaper editors and reporters were then examined relative to the President s speeches at Cleveland and St Louis

Barton Able and George Knapp, editors of the Missouri Republican testified in regard to the President s speech at St Louis which he made reluctantly upon their urging him to do so

Secretary Welles was sworn and testified that he called upon the President to inform him of certain movement of troops on the 21st of February The President said he ... know what General Emory did but he would send for him and enquire The same day he had an interview with the President relative to the removal of Stanton ...

Butler objected to the question as to what was said at that interview

Evarts said that he expected to prove that the President informed the Cabinet that he had removed Stanton and that General Thomas had possession of the office Stanton only requiring time to remove his papers etc

After a lengthy argument on both sides the Chief Justice decided the evidence admissible The Senate sustained the ruling by a vote of 26 to 23

Welles then testified in accordance with the statements of Evarts just given Witness saw the nomination of Ewing as Secretary of War in the President s hands

Evarts offered to prove that the President laid before the Cabinet the Tenure of Office bill and they advised its return Seward and Stanton undertook to prepare a veto

Butler argued against the admission of such evidence on the ground that the President could not shelter himself behind the opinions of his advisers

Evarts, in reply went into the question of the President s responsibility with great minuteness. The Court then adjourned

It is understood that at a Cabinet meeting important matters connected with the impeachment trial were discussed The counsel for the President were at the White House all the morning

When the House fully resumes business the Committee on Foreign Affairs will report a bill making the necessary appropriation for the purchase of Alaska Territory

The Secretary of the Navy has sold the iron clad Catawba for $380,000 and the Oneota for $1... 000 both to Alexander Swift & Co., of Cincinnati The purchase money has been paid into the Treasury

South Carolina's Constitution Ratified

CHARLESTON, April 17 —Scattering returns indicate the success of the Republican ticket and the ratification of the Constitution by a large majority In this city the majority for the constitution is 1 800

Louisiana Election—Negroes voting the Democratic ticket.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17 —The election is progressing quietly Many negroes openly vote the Democratic ticket

Mississippi Convention.

JACKSON, Miss. April 17 —Three sections of French s bill passed the Convention to day The seventh section provides for seven days voting at the next election Twelve members resigned their seats in the Convention The press reporters will be excluded after to-day

Matters in Canada

MONTREAL April 17 —All the correspondence which passed between the Fenian lodges of New York and Montreal has been seized by the Government A grand exodus of Irishmen from Canada has commenced in consequence Over four hundred persons are implicated in this correspondence. Oregon Indian War Claims.

The following appeared in the Washington (D C) Star of March 5th The wonder is that General Wool was ever out of his saddle his traditional 'headquarters, long enough to perform so much neutral labor

TROY FEB 26, 1868

JOHN BENSON Esq Washington D C —Dear Sir Your favor of the 23d instant was received by me this morning relative to Oregon claims for Indian outrages. The Oregonians have no just claims for outrages committed by Indians They have already received from the United States five times as much as they were entitled to for the outrage which they committed upon the Indians, which were the causes of the war

If you or any one else desire to learn the cause of the war in Oregon, I could refer you to the report of Col Cram, called for by Judge Olin (residing in Washington) when he was in Congress, I believe in 1861 and 1862 also the reports published in the Senate doc No 16 33d Congress, and 35th Congress House of Representatives doc 58

In conclusion I have only to say that the war was caused on the part of Gov Curry and his coadjutors without the slightest justification, and, as reported at the time, to enrich the whites and make political capital for the Governor Yours, very respectfully,

JOHN E. WOOL

Extract from Stephen A Douglas' speech on refunding Gen Jackson's fine for suspending the writ of habeas corpus at New Orleans

The necessity and glorious effect resulting from the cause which that necessity prompted [suspension of habeas corpus in New Orleans] were acknowledged by the whole civilized world Then so far as this bill was concerned (Douglas) could not say whether their acts were legal or illegal He cared not whether General Jackson violated the Constitution or not If his acts were necessary to defend his country that necessity was above all law * * Talk about illegality! Talk about formality! Why there was but one formality of directing the cannon and destroying the enemy, regardless of the means, whether it be by the seizure of cotton bags or the seizure of persons, if the necessity of the case required it. The God of nature has conferred this right on men and nations, and then let him not be told that it was unconstitutional To defend the country let him not be told that it was unconstitutional to use the necessary means The Constitution was adopted for the protection of the country, martial law was necessary to the salvation of the country, martial law was legal for the purpose. If it were necessary for a Judge for the preservation of order, to punish for contempt, he thought it was necessary for a General to exercise control over his cannon, to imprison traitors, and to arrest his spies, and to intercept communication with the enemy If this was necessary, this was legal.'

A WAR-WORN DEMOCRAT—INGRATITUDE.—The Eugene Journal has the following—

The ingratitude of humanity was never more fully exhibited than in the case of "Col" Craig late of the Confederate army We understand he brought a note from some of the "Jones" family to Judge ——, of this county, recommending him to the favorable consideration of the Democracy The letter set forth, we learn, that the "Col" was a Simon pure bed rock Democrat, 'without variableness or shadow of turning,' that he fought and bled under the renowned "Gen" Robert E Lee, and had gone through all the horrors of the late terrible war, for the "time honored principles" In corroboration of his statements he showed honorable scars received in the service and recited with vehement eloquence the perils he had endured, how he had been sick and in prison his watchings and fastings how he had sacrificed a princely estate in the interest of the "Lost Cause." But somehow or other the Judge couldn't see it and wouldn't pungle. The "Col." then made a series of visits among the "Species," but with the same success They had plenty of tears to shed over, but no money to spend on, poor Confederate soldiers. The "Col." became hugely disgusted, and said many bitter things against the allies Some Union man gave him money to defray his expenses out of town He then departed, invoking terrible anathemas upon the heads of the affinities.' How sharper than a serpent's tooth is ingratitude!

THE SUNDAY LAW —The San Francisco Times pays this compliment to the Catholic pastor in Sacramento

"Some of the Democratic papers are trying to make a little political capital, by charging the Union members of the Legislature with killing the bill to repeal the Sunday law. We have no particular objection to this, but candor compels us to acknowledge the fact that the Union men opposed to the bill would have been powerless to defeat it had it not been for the aid they received from Democrats. To the clergy of that Church, and especially to the energetic and indomitable pastor of Sacramento Father Cotter the thanks of those opposed to a repeal of the Sunday law are particularly due.

Some of our Democratic contemporaries profess to be aghast at the imminence of the removal of the President by impeachment. Where, exclaim they 'is there a parallel to this! What mad political party ever committed such a crime as that now contemplated by the Radicals of the Rump!' Without going into any history of precedents for impeachment, we may say that the last President who was removed was President Lincoln, removed by assassination John Wilkes Booth was a good Democrat and Brick Pomeroy another good Democrat, says that new Wilkes Booths are in training for General Grant The Examiner and its confreres do not like impeachment assassination is more in the line of their party tactics probably Alta

"Crying Evils" and their Authors

"We see and our children will feel while they work, will feel the crying evils of a disregard of the Constitution."—Herald.

Yes sir, and in this connection it will not be amiss to show by a few citations from the history of the last eight years who they are whose "disregard of the Constitution" causes us to see and will cause our children to feel, these crying evils.

The Constitution declares that no State shall enter into any "treaty, alliance or confederation." While the Democratic party was in possession of the Government it permitted a number of the States to confederate against the authority of the United States. That party made no effort to stop them. President Buchanan gave them full license to go on. The crying evils of this disregard of the Constitution were soon manifested in the breaking out of civil war. The burdens which the country is now compelled to carry would never have been known had the last Democratic Administration stamped out the first movements toward the great rebellion.

While a number of the States were confederated together in violation of the Constitution, for the purpose of resisting the authority of the United States, the Democratic party, in all sections of the country, held that it was unlawful, wrong and wicked for the Government to meet force with force for the purpose of maintaining its authority. In this emergency, when it was the unmistakable duty of every citizen to aid in upholding the paramount authority of the Constitution, the Democratic party in the several States adopted resolutions like these. In Illinois they resolved that—

As lovers of our countrymen we do not feel willing to take up arms and shed fraternal blood.

And again, in the same State, in 1863:

Resolved, That we are opposed to the further offensive prosecution of the war as tending to subvert the Constitution and the Government, and entailing upon the nation all the disastrous consequences of misrule and anarchy.

In Pennsylvania:

Resolved, That the preservation of the Union by fighting is simply preposterous. No victory in such a war would deserve to be called a triumph.

In Iowa:

Resolved, That it is not necessary to expend a dollar to employ arms, or to shed a drop of blood to perpetuate this Union.

In Connecticut:

Resolved, That the pernicious doctrine of coercion to be applied to the seceding States should be strongly resisted by every lover of our common country.

In California:

Resolved, That we are opposed to the employment of force by the General Government against the seceded States for the purpose of compelling obedience and submission to Federal authority.

In Delaware:

Resolved, That we will not be deterred from expressing our opinion both privately and publicly as to the policy of recognizing the Confederate Government under their own Constitution.

The doctrine set forth by Gov. Whiteaker and endorsed by the Democratic party of Oregon in 1861:

The speedy acknowledgment of the right of the South to form a Government of their own and the surrender of all the public property within their limits.

Is it necessary to go into further details? Truly "we see, and our children will feel while they work, the crying evils of a disregard of the Constitution!"

Why the Democratic Party Cannot Triumph.

The people cannot afford to let the Democratic party triumph unless they mean to declare that the suppression of the rebellion was wrong. They cannot afford to let that party triumph unless they mean to declare that those who rebelled and those who opposed whipping the insurgents into submission, were right. But as there still remains, and must ever remain, an abiding conviction that those who tried to ruin the nation are not fit to rule it, the Democratic party whose aim it is to place the country under control of this class of men, can never gain a national triumph.

In local matters, for some temporary purpose, the people may consent to the defeat of the Union party. But when the question comes up whether the control of the Government shall be given to those who defended it, or to those who labored and fought to destroy it, patriotism will always triumph. The people, says the St. Louis Democrat, have not changed their opinion in regard to the rebellion or those who sympathized with or aided it. Passions fade, but this is not a passion. Prejudices crumble, but this is not a prejudice. It is a deliberate reasoning and conscientious conviction that the country cannot be safely given up to the control of those who would have destroyed it. Therefore the triumph of the Union party in the approaching national election cannot be doubted. Grant will be elected. The people will not reject so faithful and able a servant for the candidate of a party which was false to the country, which sympathized with those who assailed it with traitorous arms, and which is now straining every nerve to place the rebels in power.

COUNTING THE NEGRO VOTE.—The dispatches from Louisiana state that in the election there many negroes there are voting the Democratic ticket. If this action should become general, so that the Democratic party could see a prospect of obtaining a majority of the negro vote, it would speedily remove every objection which that party urges against negro suffrage. Everybody remembers that when the reconstruction acts were first passed, giving the colored man of the South the ballot, the Democratic party shouted "Eureka," and following the advice of New York World, the Chicago Times, the Boston Post, the Philadelphia Age and other leading Democratic organs, set to work with wonderful ardor to count the negro vote. They had no argument against negro suffrage then, and the New York World, the leading organ of Democratic opinion in the East, went so far in its zeal for the negroes as to publish an article of six columns praising their industry and sobriety, and setting forth their claims to the rights of citizenship. It even went to the extent of declaring them "a better class of citizens than the Irish." But when it was found that the negroes were not likely to vote with the Democratic party this tune was suddenly changed. If however, the negroes, as a class, should show a disposition to follow the example of their colored Democratic brethren of Louisiana, the organs and politicians of that party would at once begin "to court the negro vote" again.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 18.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

The Impeachment

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The Chief Justice stated the question pending to be as follows: The counsel for the President offer to prove that at the cabinet meeting all the members, including Secretaries Stanton and Seward, declared the Tenure of Office Bill to be [illegible] and that the duty of preparing the veto message devolved upon Seward and Stanton, [illegible] by proof as to what was [illegible] by the President [illegible] [illegible] of sending in the veto. The Chief Justice [illegible] that the evidence was admissible, but the Senate [illegible] [illegible] by 20 against 29.

Secretary Welles and [illegible] Figs [illegible] Navy Department were among the witnesses [illegible] to-day.

Postmaster General Randall testified that [illegible] [illegible] postmaster at Augusta, Ga., was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] produced the papers which had caused his removal.

Most of the session was consumed in argument relative to the admissibility of evidence.

Evarts stated that the continued illness of Mr. Stanbery prevented the counsel from saying positively [illegible] as they knew their evidence was all in. The Court then adjourned.

The Virginia Convention

RICHMOND, April 18.—The Convention adjourned to-day, subject to the call of the Committee. It [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the test oath as recommended by Gen. Schofield, the Democrats voting with the colored men [illegible] in the test oath for the purpose of defeating the Constitution. Only the President and Secretary signed the Constitution, a resolution having been adopted dispensing with the signatures of the members. It was understood that the conservatives would have refused to sign.

Miscellaneous.

BOSTON, April 18.—Dr. John Homans, an eminent physician, died to-day, aged [illegible] years.

NEW YORK, April 18.—It is understood that the steamers City of Paris and Cuba, which sailed to-day, will run a race to Liverpool. Mr. Cunard is said to have wagered $10,000 on the Cuba.

Policeman David Crandall was shot dead this morning. It is supposed he was shot by an outlaw or accomplice of a gang of burglars.

DUBLIN, April 18.—The installation of the Prince of Wales as a Knight of St. Patrick occurred to-day. The procession was over two miles long. The weather was fine and vast crowds were out.

The suit against Oulon & Co. for baggage destroyed by an explosion of nitro-glycerine, at Aspinwall, has been withdrawn.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The Board of Supervisors met last night to hear argument pro and con in the matter of grading Second street. Jno. B. Felton appeared for the opposition and Samuel Wilson for those who favor the grade. The Board adjourned without taking action.

Maurice Weil, of the firm of L. Weil & Son, Sacramento street, was thrown from a horse yesterday afternoon while riding on the Cliff House road, and almost immediately died from the injuries thereby received.

The condition of Mr. Brannan last night was such as to encourage hope for a speedy recovery.

Frederick Marriott, proprietor of the News Letter, has commenced suit in the Fourth District Court against the city to recover nineteen thousand dollars for injuries sustained to his property by the mob of April, 1865.

Company A of the 21st Regiment Irish Republican Army, last evening, serenaded Col. Walsh of the Fenian Brotherhood. John Hamill, State Centre, introduced Walsh, who in his address took occasion to repudiate on the part of Fenians any connection with the assassination of Darcy McGee or any sympathy with the act.

A slight shock of earthquake was felt yesterday about 12 o'clock.

Last evening A. McDonald was accidently knocked overboard from the schooner A. P. Jordan near Fort Point. He was rescued by a small boat and brought back to town.

The proprietor of the Calaveras Chronicle denies the report that he has sold his paper to ex-Senator Gwinn and that it is to be Democratic.

The Eureka Guards make their 4th annual excursion to Vallejo to-day. They are the guests of the Vallejo Rifles.

The North American Steamship Company's steamer Nevada arrived from Panama this morning, bringing passengers and freight from New York per steamship Fulton, March 25th.

The U. S. steamer Saginaw sailed for Alaska last evening.

From Canyon City

The Mountaineer of Saturday has the following:

Lockwood & Edgar's stage from Canyon City arrived on Thursday evening. From a private letter received by us, we are informed that a rumor is current in that city that Gen. Crook had had a fight with the Indians at Stein's Mountain in which he killed about twenty Indians and captured about twenty five more. Also, that during the time the soldiers were out fighting, another band of Indians went to Camp Harney and drove off all the stock—horses, mules and beef cattle—and before the soldiers returned had made good their escape with the booty.

The trail between Canyon and Willow creek is now open and large numbers of men are passing over it daily to mining camps in that vicinity. The miners are preparing for the spring sluicing, but as yet have done but little work.

The stages running between here and Canyon City are carrying full loads both up and down. The travel to the interior has fairly commenced. The roads are fast drying up and getting in excellent order.

Political affairs in Grant county appear to be getting somewhat exciting, especially among some of the county officials, who, if rumor speaks truly, have got themselves into a serious "unpleasantness."

As the Copperhead papers have made considerable ado over the fact that one McKinney, of Oregon City, has gone over to their party because he could not approve the reconstruction acts and other measures of Congress, we feel called on to say that this same McKinney, less than a month ago, sought the nomination, at the hands of the Union party, for Prosecuting Attorney of the Fourth District, and that his failure to get it sent him over to the Copperheads. He made no objection to the principles of the Union party while he was seeking a nomination from that organization; but when he found that the party did not rate him at his own value, he immediately discovered that its principles and measures were unconstitutional and destructive. This rebuke which his shallow vanity and office-hunting mendacity received is what convinced him, and,—

Convinced, he changed; could any man do more?
And have not greater patriots changed before?

Poor Abbott of the Albany Democrat is still clamoring for the taxation of United States bonds! It is enough to make every honest, intelligent man despair of popular government to think that there are so many mumping fools in the world, and that in this country so great a number of them assume the office of public instructors through the Democratic press. The Unionist justly says that "it is utterly impossible to find an intelligent paragraph in a Democratic journal published in the State. Some of them are positively disgusting—exhibiting the most maudlin imbecility." The Unionist was referring particularly to the Lafayette Courier, though doubtless it meant to include the Albany Democrat.

A call for a Mass Convention irrespective of political parties signed by an equal number of Republicans and Democrats, is made in Umatilla county. The ticket to be nominated will be in opposition to the one lately made by the Democrats. The proceedings of the political managers in the Convention were so outrageous that large numbers of Democrats would not submit to them and the unprincipled demagogues are likely to come to grief.

That super excellent "Democratic" paper, the Eugene Guard, calls the late war "an infamous Puritan crusade for Southern subjugation." How does this tally with Rev. Smith's assertion that the Democratic party put down the rebellion? The Guard expresses the real opinions of its party, while Smith prevaricates and falsifies.

Charles Dickens says: "I have often heard a vast quantity of nonsense about bad men not looking you in the face. Don't trust that conventional idea. Dishonesty will stare honesty out of countenance any day of the week, if there is anything to be got."

SAN FRANCISCO AHEAD.—There are more papers published in San Francisco with 150,000 inhabitants than there are in London with its 3,000,000 souls. It seems remarkable, but it is nevertheless true.

A firm in England put up some prepared meat for a firm in New Zealand, and by direction [illegible] the packages labeled "Canned Missionaries." The natives cleaned out the stock in two days.

The Speakers at Eugene City

EUGENE CITY, April 14, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Messrs. Logan and Smith spoke here to-day to a very large audience. The former leading off with a telling speech of more than an hour, was followed by His Reverence in an hour's harangue in which he labored to show the propriety of [illegible] [illegible] "dead issues," as respecting [illegible] [illegible] all their great, consistent patriotic record, and henceforth look upon them as "Loyal" [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the common welfare of the country and the integrity of the Union. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] tell Mr. Logan [illegible] which [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] after the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] diatribes of his opponent, successfully answered his every objection to the Congressional plan of reconstruction, and in fact completely knocked the [illegible] [illegible] of the Democratic platform, candidate and all. I am well satisfied, as was every impartial hearer at the court house to-day, that Mr. Smith is greatly overmatched as a speaker and in argument by Mr. Logan, not to speak of the merit of the causes which they respectively [illegible]. Even the "C[illegible]" think [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] enough for him. Union men [illegible] [illegible] hope to restore this county by a fair majority.

THE STEAMER JOHN L. STEPHENS [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] has arrived at Portland and brought [illegible] KOHN & FISHEL the largest and best assortment of Gentlemen's Spring and Summer Suits, the latest styles and of the best material that has been offered in this city for years. The Ladies have not been forgotten. They will find [illegible] [illegible] section of the stock just arrived that their wants have been anticipated by a selection of dry goods, the equal of which is not often presented here.

NEW TO-DAY.

UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

THE REGENTS OF THIS INSTITUTION PROPOSE to LEASE it for a term of years and for this purpose [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] proposals until the first day of July, 1868, from Teachers competent to conduct an Institution of this kind. Propositions to lease it as a sectarian institution will not be entertained. The Regents reserve the right to reject any proposition deemed disadvantageous. References will be required.

The Institution embraces ten acres of ground well cleared and fenced; the University Building, a [illegible] President's House, Boarding House and Outbuildings, with a good supply of running water. It is pleasantly and healthfully situated in Seattle, W. T., is well suited to school purposes, and is in condition to be occupied immediately.

FROM MONTICELLO — A correspondent at ... writes us follows:

EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN—Dear Sir: I noticed ... paper of recent date wherein you ... remarked ... the whisky shops of ... that ... all closed ... wait ... but ... [illegible] ... would follow shortly and whisky ... of Chinook. Now sir, we of Chinook ... to inform you that whatever ... may have been ... in the past (and we do not pretend to deny the liability of your imputation then) that Chinook has changed ... like the unterrified Democracy from bad to worse ... for the better. You of Portland can still count your whisky shops and drinkers; we of Chinook have none. We are proud to say that we have a Justice of the Peace and a constable, a Minister of the Gospel and a Good Templars Lodge, numbering thirty members. It was said in ancient days, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? yet some good came out of it, as the christian world will allow. You may say now as they did of old, Can any good thing come out of Chinook? Our answer is, wait and see, but do not cry us down. It is true that Chinook is only a fishing village and its ... people gain a living by casting their nets in the waters of the sea. But permit us to call your attention to one ... fact in history. When He who is love ... sought for men to serve Him, He found them among the poor fishermen on the shores of the sea ... I say that He may not find to-day some to serve Him among the poor fishermen of ... We are glad to hear from our friend that the morals of Chinook are moving in an up grade; in short, that there is a fair chance that the millennium ... get its start in Chinook. But we beg leave to ... our Chinook friend if he is not mistaken when he ... the OREGONIAN as using the language above re... The OREGONIAN certainly has not said editorially that the whisky shops of Portland are nearly all closed for want of business, and we do not think that we ever talked of consigning the whisky drinkers to ... on Chinook beach. If anything of the kind ... appeared in the OREGONIAN we very cheerfully tender an apology to Chinook, to the Chinook Justice of the Peace, to the Chinook constable, the Chinook minister, to the Chinook Good Templars, and to the Chinook fishermen.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—We clip the subjoined item from the Register of Saturday: We attended by invitation the examination of scholars of the Vancouver Seminary, under the superintendence of Rev. D. W. Nichols, which took place at that institution on Friday, the 10th inst. Quite a number of spectators (mostly patrons of the school) were present, and the proficiency exhibited by the scholars was generally complimented. ... We learn that the Sabbath Schools have not accepted the invitation extended to them by Columbia Lodge No. 2, I. O. G. T. to ... with it in a May day festival. The reason assigned for not accepting, we have heard, was that it has been customary for many years for the sabbath schools to hold festivals of their own on that day, and that arrangements had been made for having one this year. ... The first ... installment on the stock of the Water Co. ($15 ...) was assessed and collected within the past week. We are reliably informed that proposals ... will be advertised shortly and the enterprise ... prosecuted to a rapid and successful operation. ... soap factory of D. A. Conlish has been put ... again after a suspension of some months for ... and repairs. ... Sparkling Fountain Lodge I. O. G. T. was organized on the Mill Plain, on the 10th of March, with thirteen charter members, and have since ... two by initiation. The members are hopeful and we trust their noble enterprise will meet with the encouragement which it is so justly entitled.

... ITEMS.—We clip the following from the Mountaineer: It was rumored on the street yesterday that ... Esq., had received the appointment of ... of the Mint. We have not learned as to the truth of this rumor. ... Trout fishing in Mill Creek is quite a popular amusement for our citizens. ... this gentleman on Wednesday afternoon coming ... with a fifteen pound salmon trout, looking well ... with the result of his afternoon's sport. ... A gentleman who arrived by last evening's train from Umatilla and Auburn informed us that the Indians made a raid on the settlers of Mormon Basin and drove off all the stock. They also attacked two trains and captured them, the drivers making their escape on the backs of their wheel horses. ... The annual meeting of the Wasco Wool ... Manufacturing Company was held on the 14th instant, the following named gentlemen elected as Directors for the ensuing year: Henry Marlin, W. ... J. E. Donnell, Col. N. H. Gates, H. J. Waldron, ... Miller, E. L. Joslyn. Col. N. H. Gates President, ... Abrams, Vice President, H. J. Waldron ... and Samuel L. Brooks Secretary.

... THE COUNTY CONVENTION.—The primaries for the selection of delegates to the Union County Convention to be holden the 25th inst., took place in this city and county on Saturday. The total vote of the city precincts was larger than usual, ... ing between five and six hundred. The following are lists of delegates elected in the city: First Ward: B. ... Smith, A. P. Ankeny, C. S. Mills, Daniel J. Malarkey, Wm. Dillinger, George Merrall, Jas. Lotan, W. W. Spaulding, F. F. Hogue, L. H. Lewis, H. Hurtle ... [illegible] P. D. W. Hardenberg, W. ... Harris, R. Weeks, L. C. Fuller, W. H. Brackett, C. O. Clark, R. R. Riley, H. D. Larrish, George L. Hibbard, James W. Cook, W. M. Arnold, J. A. Thomas, T. J. Dryer, P. F. Brown, J. S. Keller, Stephen Skidmore. Third Ward: ... Hodge, Wm. ... J. ... O. Lowns..., David M. Dustin, L. Besser, J. C. Van Rensselaer, ... J. G. Kingsley, W. C. O'Hara, ... P. ... W. P. Wilcox, J. Mann, Charles Hopkins, J. F. Wattger.

OREGON CITY ITEMS.—The Enterprise furnishes the following news items: There will be preaching in Oregon ... Friday the 24th inst., to continue three days, by Rev. Mr. Harris and Rev. Mr. Richardson, of the Christian denomination. A general invitation is extended to the public. ... We are informed that Capt. ... will not go East, but that he is arranging to build a ... to run on the upper Willamette. ... The friends of Rev. J. W. Sellwood, of this city, will regret to learn of an accident which befel her on last Monday by ... She was painfully scalded on a stove. It appears that during a momentary swoon she fell upon the ... Medical assistance was speedily procured, and we are glad to learn that she is recovering.

EXPORTS FROM VICTORIA.—The Colonist says: From the ... report of the Consul Francis to his ... we learn that for the quarter ending the 31st of March, the exports of this port were $391,150, of which ... upwards of $52,000 was in coal. To San Francisco we sent $74,858 worth; to Port Townsend $4,609 ... to Sitka, $17,110. From the same report ... that the telegraph material shipped hence ... valued at $341,632.

STEAMER FOR THE UPPER WILLAMETTE.—The ... regarding the building of a new steamer for the Upper ... have assumed definite shape. The Enterprise ... the company about to undertake it is headed by ... THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION.—The Sacramento ... has the following in regard to the Connecticut election:

It is remarkable in connection with this election that English has made no gains in his strongholds. His majority in New Haven this year is reported at ... 00; last year it was 717. In Hartford this year it is 124; last year it was ... double ... much more than ... the majority in the whole State. No mistake ... he was wealthy and succeeding last year by lavish use of money, by practical ... of his ... operatives and because his opponents refused to employ like means, it would appear that his funds have this year been made ... to the other side as well as his own, and that his personal influence has not extended beyond those whose subsistence he could control. Connecticut and New Jersey, being near the great ... and having been immemorially ruled by ... means brought to bear upon Democratic ignorance, will doubtless continue to be for some time ... doubtful States. But it is a satisfaction to know that it is only by such means that either of these States can be hindered from ranging themselves in the right rank. In great crises, when the intelligence and virtue of the people declare their power, these States as well as others are brought to the rescue.

REPUBLICAN TRIUMPHS.—Our political news is of a most cheering character. Rhode Island and New Hampshire give Republican victories and Connecticut is added to the list—for English's majority has simmered down to only 1,571. It must be remembered he was a War Democrat who during the whole rebellion lent his best energies to the support of the Government. Than he, none were louder in their denunciation of treason and traitors. He has made a good Governor—is a popular man, both personally and because of his war record. His election so far as the ... goes is not distasteful to Republicans. We have the Legislature, which insures a Republican Senator in place of Dixon, Democrat. It is amusing to read Democratic papers claiming a victory. We fail to see it. But now we have news from Wisconsin, where was gained a full Republican triumph. We rather think the ... fierce Democrats ... are going in the same hole they came out.—Stockton (Cal.) Independent.

MODERATION ON SHORT SKIRTS.—Prentice Mulford in a letter to the Stockton Gazette says:

The superiority of the present style of short skirts was never more apparent than during the present wet season. One cannot avoid regarding the girls on Montgomery street at present with interest. They trip so free and unobstructive. The brevity of their dresses is graded according to character and temperament. Very modest and retiring females have about an inch and a half between the bottom of the gowns and the pavement. Cheerful girls two and a half. Lively girls who skirmish around the confines of the church, and teach a class in Sunday School, to keep up appearances, four inches. Racy girls who know what they are about, but will ride out to the Cliff House with a respectably dissipated man if they want to do so, four and three quarters. Fast girls five. Very fast six. I know. When one has measured one has a right to know.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FOR GENERAL GRANT.—The following dispatch was recently sent to the General:

Concord (N. H.), March 6th. To General Grant, Washington (D. C.): The Republicans of New Hampshire, by a triumphant majority, demand that you shall be nominated and elected to the Presidency in order that reconstruction may be achieved on a loyal basis and peace and prosperity secured to the country. W. E. CHANDLER

E. H. ROLLINS

A Democratic stump speaker at Nashua, New Hampshire, just before the late election, drew a flask of whisky from his pocket, turned out a glassful and holding it up before his appreciating audience, told them that if Harriman was elected the tax on that amount of the precious beverage would be twenty five cents.

UNION COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Union County Convention for Multnomah county will be held at the Court House in the city of Portland, on Saturday, April 25th, 1868, commencing at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of nominating four Representatives in the State Legislature and ... county officers for said county.

All voters in the several Precincts in the said county, who endorse the platform adopted by the Union State Convention and who are willing to aid the Union Republican party by their support, are requested to meet at their respective places of voting on the 18th day of April, 1868, to select delegates to attend said County Convention—based upon the Union vote for Governor at the June election A. D. 1866, at the rate of one delegate for every twenty votes and one for each fraction over one-half. The Precincts are entitled to delegates as follows:

South Portland	14	Sandy	2
Central Portland	17	St. Johns	3
North Portland	11	Powell's Valley	1
East Portland	5	Willamette	2
Multnomah	2	Sauvie's Island	1
Fulton	2

The polls will be opened at the respective precincts at the hour of one o'clock P. M. and remain open until 5 o'clock P. M.

DIOSMA CRENATA ... BUCHU LEAVES

Properties. Their odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic, their taste bitterish and analogous to mint.

Medical Properties and Uses. Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the Urinary Organs.

They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs—such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostrate and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections and Dropsy.

HELMBOLD'S Extract Buchu is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after Confinement or Labor Pains; Bed-wetting in children.

In Affections Peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, Leucorrhea or Whites.

Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel and Dropsical Swellings.—This medicine increases the power of Digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous depositions and all unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as Pain and Inflammation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu has cured every case of DIABETES in which it has been given. Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick Dust Deposit and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and for Enfeebled or Delicate Constitutions of both Sexes, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, &c.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

Is Diuretic and Blood Purifying, and Cures all Diseases Caused by Habits of Dissipation, Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, &c., superseding Copaiba in affections for which it is used, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleets of long standing and Syphilitic Affections—in these diseases used in connection with

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers. Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels; Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this T... and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Low Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS has effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last but not least it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The Army and the Republic.

[From the New York Tribune, March 14th.]

Military ambition has always been held to be the principal danger of a republic, especially a republic which has a pugnacious spirit. Other republics than this have found their Caesar, and France when after long fighting, she had established her republic amidst an ocean of blood, found her Napoleon. France turned herself into a vast camp, made all her young men soldiers, accepted fighting as her everyday business, only to establish her freedom. But the power she created destroyed her. The young Corsican who ran up all the grades of the army till he became the Alexander of the age, was no sooner the hero of France than he made himself the Emperor. It is with nations as with women: those whom they love they long to serve, and are often not content till the wooer becomes the master. Military ambition is not so dangerous to a monarchy, because when a General wins too many victories they manage to get him defeated.

Thaddeus Stevens said the other day that the military would rule this country for twenty-five years. He accepted Grant as the inevitable next President. It may be so. The Mexican war made Zachary Taylor our President, and it was no use to talk to the Whig party about the long services of Henry Clay and Daniel Webster while the battle-smoke of Buena Vista was still in the sky. When Zachary Taylor said, "Give them a little grape, Captain Bragg," he unconsciously ordered a battery to annihilate his future Presidential rivals. General Grant was equally fortunate when he wrote that he meant "to fight it out on this line if it takes all Summer." Every man can understand courage, and every one admires a soldier. But it is not every one who understands a statesman. The moment you publish an opinion on national finances, or make a speech on reconstruction, you make one party or the other your enemy, and half your friends begin to doubt your political soundness. Gen. Butler may explain, and explain but people will say that he is in favor of repudiation. Vice President Wade made some kind of a speech out West, and to the end of his life thousands of his countrymen will denounce him as an agrarian. What an agrarian is it is not necessary for them to know, but the word is a good word for a Democratic orator. Chief Justice Chase, when Secretary of the Treasury, found a way to get the money to carry on the war, at a time when it was hard to get money to carry on anything. What has happened to Chase in consequence? Every man who hasn't a five-twenty bond, and who envies every other man who has, is inclined to consider Chase his personal enemy. General Grant has escaped all these little embarrassments. He was in command of the armies that put down the rebellion; he quarreled with Andrew Johnson; the people believe in his honesty and patriotism; and these broad facts push aside all inquiry into his opinions of negro suffrage, and the finances, and the tariff. But, if Gen. Grant [illegible] to be a successful candidate let him maintain his silence, never make a speech about agrarianism, or propose any plan for the resumption of specie payments. Nothing is more common than for a politician to commit suicide by cutting his own throat with his tongue—a fact which shows what a great thing it is to be eloquent.

But whether General Grant is to be the next President or not, we do not at present inquire. We are interested in Stevens' speculations about a quarter of a century of military rule. Surely there are Generals and heroes [illegible] to furnish half a dozen countries with first-class rulers. There are Sherman, Sheridan, George H. Thomas, Sickles, Meade. After Grant goes out of the Presidency, of course we assume that he goes in—is [illegible] of these Generals to have his turn? There are six of them altogether; and if we give them four years of office each, six fours are twenty four, which is near to Stevens' estimate. This is a state of things which is likely to throw a gloom over the aspiring souls of the gentlemen who have never been lucky enough to seek the [illegible] Presidency at the cannon's mouth.

But [illegible] the gravest aspect of the case; so far [illegible] the republic is in danger [illegible] The army is dispersed in [illegible] and states of the [illegible] All the [illegible] commanded [illegible] to [illegible] the ambition of [illegible] Grant surrendered [illegible] of the [illegible] It [illegible] to [illegible] but it is hardly necessary for us to look out for Grant or Sheridan. Everywhere the military power is ruled by the civil law. The very military Governments in the South are the creatures of [illegible] and perish when Congress [illegible] There is no soldier in the army of the United States who dares to draw his sword [illegible] the republic gives him the order, or who would dare refuse to sheath it when the republic commands. [illegible] impossible for military usurpation to succeed in the United States will in time disprove Stevens' theory. Four years hence, unless we vastly mistake, new issues will be determined in the Presidential election; and it is not likely that Generals who [illegible] in 1864 will command Conventions in 1872. The President who is [illegible] to be elected [illegible] have served in the war of [illegible] but not because of that service [illegible]

The [illegible] the people of the United States [illegible] They honor the army—not [illegible] for the glory [illegible] but for the peace it established. We cheered when Vicksburg was taken and when Sherman [illegible] to the sea, merely because they were steps to peace and [illegible] the happy time when the terrible drum should cease to roll its muttered thunder [illegible] Long before the war ended the heart of the nation yearned for [illegible] freedom for all her companions, we have no fear of a war waged in the interest of despotism. This is not a country fit for a Napoleon's purpose [illegible] where the greater the lawbreaker, may be the greater we hold the crime. When we find a President who would play Napoleon, we impeach him.

Mr. Peabody's Gift to the Poor of London.—The Trustees of Mr. Peabody's first gift of £100,000 to the poor of London reports for the year 1867 that the gift has been fully employed; that the sanitary condition of the buildings is excellent; that the deaths in them are much below the average, and due to ordinary causes; that good order, health, and general [illegible] prevail among the tenants; that the children are clean and happy, and that a beneficial influence is exerted over the working classes. Next year the second gift of £100,000 will be applied. The population in the houses erected by Mr. Peabody is [illegible]

A fellow, on being asked to write a testimonial for a patent clothes-wringer, produced the following:

"I bought your ringer, and I am immensely pleased with it. I bought a jag of wood which proved to be green and unfit to burn. I run the whole load through your clothes ringer, and I have used the wood for kindling ever since."

Advice to Miners. The Sweetwater Miner says:

Pilgrims for the Land of Gold! take it easy. Better be slow and sure than by over haste expose yourself to dangers and privations by which no particular advantage is gained. We are fearful it will prove hard on some who are bound for Sweetwater.

An exchange tells of a beautiful, amiable and fascinating, and immensely wealthy young lady in a village in the country who carefully conceals the knowledge of her wealth, wears cheap clothes, and works in a milliner shop, waiting for an interesting young man to woo and win her "for himself alone." There will not be a milliner left in that village in three months.

A pretty trick in New Orleans is to get up a miniature illicit distillery costing about $30. A confederate then informs the revenue officers, the still is seized, and the scamps divide the $300 paid to the informer, between them.

A paper which has lately exchanged presses says: "We have sold one of our presses to go to India where it will continue to print for the benefit of the heathen."

Libels.

Horace Greeley, in his Recollections of a Busy Life, now in progress of publication in the New York Ledger, discussing libel suits, says:

"I have often heard it asserted from the bench that editors claim impunity to libel—which is not the truth. What I claim and insist on is this: That the editor shall be protected by the nature and exigencies of his calling to the same extent, in the same degree, that other men are protected by the exigencies, the requirements, of their callings or positions respectively.

For instance: A judge on the bench, a lawyer at the bar, may libel atrociously; and I hold may be fairly held responsible for such libel; but the law will not presume him a libeler from the mere fact that he speaks disparagingly of some person or persons. A householder applied to for the character of his late servant may respond "I turned him off because I found him an eye servant, a drunkard, and a thief;" yet the law will presume no malice not specially proven; because it avers that, in giving his ex-servant's character, that householder was acting in the line of his duty. Had he posted up those precise words in a public place, the law would have presumed malice, because no duty required such posting.

Now let us apply the principle enunciated to the actual case in hand: Jefferson Jones posts up in a bar room, livery-stable, or on the town pump, these words: 'Clifford Nokes was last night caught stealing a hog, and was committed by Justice Smith, to await [illegible] trial.' The law will presume that [illegible] and will deal [illegible] prove it [illegible] no duty [illegible] of his [illegible] of the fair, natural presumption, that he was moved so to post by [illegible] or malevolence. But that same paragraph might appear in the columns of any journal that habitually printed police intelligence, without justifying or rendering plausible a kindred presumption. It might, indeed, be proved that the editor had [illegible] with malicious intent to injure Nokes; and then I say: 'Punish the libeler to the extent of the law,' But I protest against presuming an editor a libeler because, in the routine of his vocation, the line of his duty, he prints information which may prove inaccurate or wholly erroneous, without fairly exposing him to the presumption that he was impelled to utter it by a malevolent spirit, a purpose to injure or degrade. Am I understood?

Twice, in the course of my thirty years editorship, I have encountered human beings base enough to require me to correct a damaging statement, and, after I had done so to the extent of their desire, to sue me upon that retracted statement as a libel! I think this proves more than the depravity of the persons implicated—that it indicates a glaring defect in the law or the ruling under which such a maneuver is possible. If the law were honest, or merely decent, it would refuse to be made an accomplice of such villainy."

When Andrew Johnson stooped to treason,
Men found too late he could betray;
What charm can give the creature reason,
Or wash his [illegible] stains away?
The proper course for him to follow,
And hide his shame from every eye,
Is either to resign all hollow,
Or wring his bosom well, and die.
—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral surpasses all other remedies in the rapid and radical cure of Colds, Coughs and Consumption.

Asthma.—This disease causes great difficulty of breathing, and tightness across the chest, and sometimes attended with a great deal of suffocation. The paroxysm generally occurs at night, while lying down; sometimes it is attended with great violence. Allen's Lung Balsam will always give immediate relief, and in time, if persevered in, it will cure the disease altogether. For sale by dealers in family medicines.

Soothing and Bracing.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint [illegible] it is equally efficacious [illegible] Ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by Druggists and dealers everywhere.

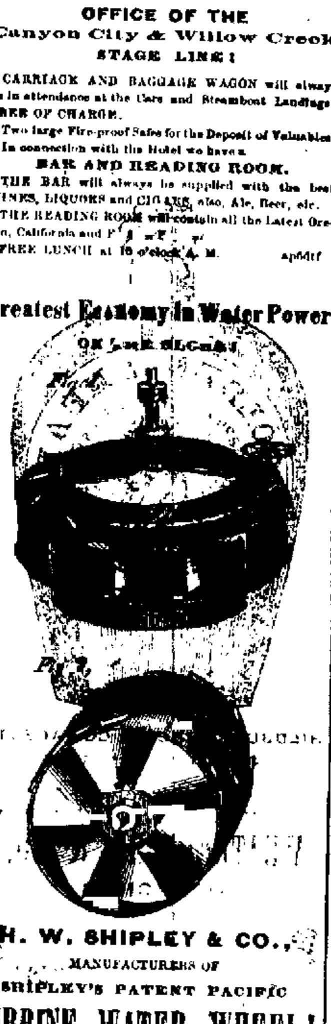
Greatest Economy in Water Power



H. W. SHIPLEY & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC
TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH, THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high-priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been played out by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature:

Mr. H. W. Shipley—Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over-shot and three Leffel wheels—10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15-inch wheel for the 13 inch Leffel wheel, though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 ft of water per minute more than the 13 inch Leffel. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel; but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water per minute. After some months, I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance: while running the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches, I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels, I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffel with gates one-third open. At half gate, your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel, by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first, and absent from the State, at the second trial.

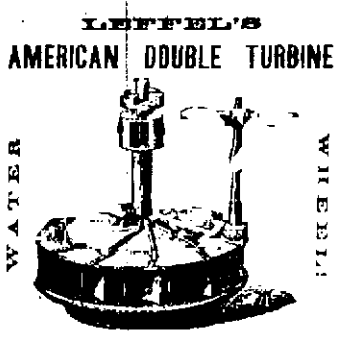
LEFFEL'S
AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested in this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

The following is from the Springfield Republic:

Trial of Water Wheels.

Messrs. Jonathan Child and John A. McCreight, who are about establishing mills and factories at Harper's Ferry, Va., wished to procure water wheels, and desiring to make a choice of Springfield Wheels, procured a trial between the Leffel Double-Turbine and the Welch and Burns Wheel. The following report of the Committee shows the result of the trial:

"Springfield, O., Oct. 11, 1867.

This is to certify, that on the 9th and 10th days of October, 1867, I, in company with Mr. Staley, Civil Engineer, of Mechanicsburg, carefully measured the amount of water used in the test between the 20 inch Leffel Turbine and the 20 inch Welch & Burns Water wheels, made by Bechlis, Blakeney & Baker, made at Weimer's mill, near West Milton, Miami Co., O. The contract regulating the test to be made with ½ gates and ¾ gates, with the same amount of water for each wheel. The amount of grinding was superintended by Mr. Charles Morgan, who will report the results.

The amount of water used in the tests, as measured by myself and Mr. Staley, is as follows:

	C. ft per min.
At ½ gate the Leffel Wheel used	33.724
Welch & Burns used	[illegible]
At ¾ gate the Leffel Wheel used	117.[illegible]
Welch & Burns used	117.[illegible]

The grinding was continued for one hour each test.
WILLIAM BROWN, Civil Engineer.
S. STALEY.

Having been chosen by both parties to determine the amount of grain ground by each of the above mentioned wheels, the result was as follows:

The Leffel Wheel at ½ gate ground	256 lbs
The Welch & Burns at ½ gate ground	[illegible]
The Leffel Wheel at ¾ gate ground	411 lbs
The Welch & Burns at ¾ gate ground	192 lbs
